Calling All Champions of Change

Hunger is an issue that touches the lives of people all around us. Whether it's the single mother struggling to feed her family of four while simultaneously making ends meet or a person living in rural America who has to drive 50 miles to the closest grocery store, hunger affects us all.

That is why I am calling upon all community leaders who have committed themselves to ending this struggle to apply to the "White House Champions of Change: Alleviating Hunger at Home and Abroad" program. The purpose of this program is to recognize individuals who are using innovative community-based approaches to reduce hunger and ensure that people have access to enough food both in the United States and internationally.

Nominations are due by Friday, June 29, 2012.
